Recommendations of the California Federation of Republican Women for the June 8 Propositions

PROP 13: Limits on Property Tax Assessment. Seismic Retrofitting of Existing Buildings. CFRW recommends a YES vote.
Prop 13 would protect home and business owners from new taxes if they decide to seismically retrofit their property. If a property assessment was made AFTER the retrofitting was done on an existing structure, the value of the new retrofit on the property would not be taxable. This proposition would protect taxpayers from sneaky property taxes.

PROP 14: Primary Election Process Reform. Greater Participation in Elections. CFRW recommends a NO vote.
Don't let the title of this proposition fool you. Greater participation, unlikely. Less representation, definitely. This proposition is on the ballot because of a backdoor budget vote trade, and Democrats and Republicans actually agree, this is not a good idea. This would create a "top two" primary election and prohibits Central Committee and party nomination for candidates. It is entirely possible that in a general election, two Democrats could be running against each other, or two Republicans. There is no real evidence that constituents will be more likely to vote in a primary election without the party restrictions.

PROP 15: California Fair Elections Act. CFRW recommends a NO vote.
Another cleverly disguised title. Prop 15 would create publicly funded races for the Secretary of State's office for the 2014 and 2018 election cycles. What is scary about this initiative is that it repeals the 1978 Political Reform Act that prohibits candidates from receiving public moneys for seeking elective office. Instead the Secretary of State will collect money transferred from a "Fair Elections Fund" to the Fair Political Practices Committee for the purposes of funding this act. The Legislature could vote to extend this act to all statewide offices at anytime. Money to fund this act would be collected by imposing a tax on all CA lobbyists, expanding their filing fee from about $25 to $700.

PROP 16: Imposes New Two-Thirds Voter Approval Requirement for Local Public Electricity Providers. CFRW makes NO RECOMMENDATION.
This proposition requires that there be a public vote if the local electricity providers are to change. PG&E is the big supporter for this bill, but the California Republican Party also supports the initiative. The CFRW believes that due to the diversity of our organization, electricity providers impact our members in very different ways. We would encourage our members to research how the passage of this proposition would directly affect them and make an informed vote.

PROP 17: Allows Auto Insurance Companies to Base Their Prices in Part on a Driver's History of Insurance Coverage. CFRW makes NO RECOMMENDATION.
The CFRW feels that the ramifications of this proposition on consumers are uncertain. Prop 17 allows good drivers with continuous coverage to keep their discounted insurance rate if they choose to switch insurance companies, but it may potentially punish drivers who have lapse in coverage for any reason. The CFRW urges our members to make their own decision based on how they feel about their car insurance coverage.

Candidates for Alameda County Superior Court Judge

John Creighton -- He has been an Alameda County deputy district attorney for the last 25 years with a wide array of experience in that office. He has worked in the gang suppression division and the environmental unit, and has prosecuted sex crimes and other violent offenses. If elected, one of his top priorities would be to start a gang court that would not only impose punishment but also direct youth programs that would help gang members get jobs and become productive members of society. (He also helped build the murder case against Johannes Mehserle, the officer accused of fatally shooting Oscar Grant III at the Fruitvale BART station.)

Louis Goodman – He is a criminal defense attorney and former Alameda County prosecutor, with 30 years' experience as a lawyer and legal instructor. He works in the Alameda County courts as a volunteer judge pro tem. In that capacity, Goodman has handled small claims civil disputes and thousands of traffic matters, ranging from tickets to DUI sentencing hearings. Having spent time in the courts and seen the backlogs and inefficiencies firsthand, he notes that he has a grasp of court procedure and knows what it takes to keep a court calendar moving.

Victoria Kolakowski -- She has 20 years experience as a judge and attorney. She says she is running because she wants to use her skills as a trained mediator. She also says that she is the lone candidate that believes the bench needs more diversity. She points out that only 29% of the Superior Court judges currently serving are women, and that there are no openly lesbian and transgender judges. She is a transgender who lives with her spouse, Cynthia.

Membership Report

Greetings, Fellow Patriots!

Have you seen it? The 2010 TVRWF Member Directory is out, and hopefully you can take a moment to review your information and send a message to me with any corrections. It would also be great to get the “year” you joined TVRWF. So, even if your contact information is correct, please email the year you joined to me at tawnyatrunnell@comcast.net.

After the changes, additions, and corrections are made in the Member Directory, a “Final” version will be emailed to the entire membership again. Only this time, you get to print it out and put it into your Membership Binder.

For you new Members and Associates, rest assured, a Membership Binder is on its way! If you want it sooner than later, please give me a call at 925-454-2927 to let me know you would like to pick it up. If you can hold off till a later date, I will do my best to hand deliver the binder to you.

Let me take this moment to tell everyone, “Thank You!” It’s great having you as a Member/Associate! It is through our group that we will be working on a legacy for the future of this country.

What legacy will we leave? Well, for starters, we have joined a great chapter of Republican women who truly want things to be better for one and all. Keep your eyes and ears peeled for important, life-changing information! It’s sleeves-rolling-up time for everyone!

Work on those questions you have about the government, and give us a call. If we don’t have an answer; we’ll research the facts, comb out the truth, and bring it back to you! In some cases, you will be asked to participate in the research, too.

In closing, remember that it’s never too late to get your family member, neighbor, co-worker, mail deliverer and book club partner signed up with TVRWF! Please print out the Membership Renewal – New Member form at the back of this newsletter and ask them to come on board! And if they sign up after the first of June, it’s half price!

Community News from TVRWF Members

Editor's note: TVRWF members have many interests and participate in many different activities, like veteran, military support, TEA Party, and other community organizations. If something special is happening that you want to share with your fellow TVRWF members, please feel free to submit it for our monthly newsletter. We are happy to include news that might be of general interest to the membership, space permitting, of course. Our next newsletter will be September 2010. Please see the calendar box on page 3 for the newsletter deadline.

The following was submitted by Cory Emberson, a new TVRWF member from Livermore:

We'd like to invite you to read the new book Pursuing Liberty: America Through the Eyes of the Newly Free, written by local authors Cory Emberson and Rick Lindstrom, and published by Founders Editions.

Pursuing Liberty tells the gripping first-person stories of naturalized Americans who came here from Communist and other tyrannical countries: what it was really like for them, what they found in their new home of America, what they see happening now, and what they believe should be done to restore the Founders' intent for our country. We are truly the last beacon of freedom on earth - if we lose our birthright of freedom here, where can we go?

KSFO's Brian Sussman graciously wrote the foreword to Pursuing Liberty, and has been a wonderful supporter of the book. We've spoken at conservative gatherings around the Bay Area and are committed to reversing our country's descent into statism and progressivism.

We invite you to use the promo code "Liberty" when ordering from our toll-free number: 877-772-2012, or by ordering from our secure website: www.pursuingliberty.com. It's a great offer: The first edition of Pursuing Liberty will be signed by both authors, and includes a pocket-sized U.S. Constitution and Declaration of Independence (courtesy of the Heritage Foundation). And for each book ordered, we'll make a donation to the wonderful charity, the Wounded Warrior Project. This Memorial Day weekend through Tuesday, June 1, we are honored to double our donation to the Wounded Warrior Project.

The book is listed on Amazon, but because Amazon doesn't make it possible for us to make the donation to Wounded Warrior Project, our website (PursuingLiberty.com) is the best way to order online. If you'd like to place an order using a check, cash, or money order, just contact us through the toll-free number or our office number (925-443-9987), and we'll be happy to help you.

Pursuing Liberty is priced at $16.95, and you'll get a 15% discount for orders of 10 or more. It's also an excellent way to introduce young people - including graduates and first-time voters - to the true meaning of freedom, and the price many have paid to attain it.

Thank you for your patriotism, and we look forward to joining you on the road to restored liberty!

In liberty,

Cory Emberson and Rick Lindstrom
